ECO HOTEL SALTUS

NESTLED IN THE FOREST

Located at an altitude of 1 100 metres, this is South Tyrol's first eco-hotel. True to the motto: "Live nature because you are nature", Saltus offers a spa, sky pools, forest bathing, yoga, and everything relaxing. The hotel uses fresh mineral water from the mountain and the culinary delicacies entail regional and seasonal ingredients as well as vegan options. All rooms are nestled next to one another and feature limestone flooring and clay walls, excavated porphyry stone and beeswax sealants. Next to each bed is a small booklet for big thoughts, inspired by the very essence of being. Not far from the city of Bozen, one can soar over the treetops in the cable car looking down at endless shades of green.
